NOOO
WAAAY.

—Are here
to stay.

Thank you for picking this up.

How is everyone? Personally, I'm not doing so well. No joke, I can't go back to reading "Jump", my heart won't take it. I wanna take my time to read it when it comes out, but what should I do if the cover is KuroTsuki?! Just end me...

Even if it's a magazine, it was messing with my head, and I tried to distract myself by drawing some naughty KuroTsuki stuff, but it worsened it. If you ever get tired or feel unwell, I hope you'll pick up this book and get worked up.

I've been drawing lewds in the morning frequently, ending up going to school, making a perverted face, my head full of dirty thoughts during classes. A horny Tsukishima Kei, isn't it super lewd? The concept of "Tsukishima Kei only thinking about sex" is amazing. It's super erotic when a man like Tsukishima Kei thinks about doing it. It can't be helped since he likes Kuroo-san.

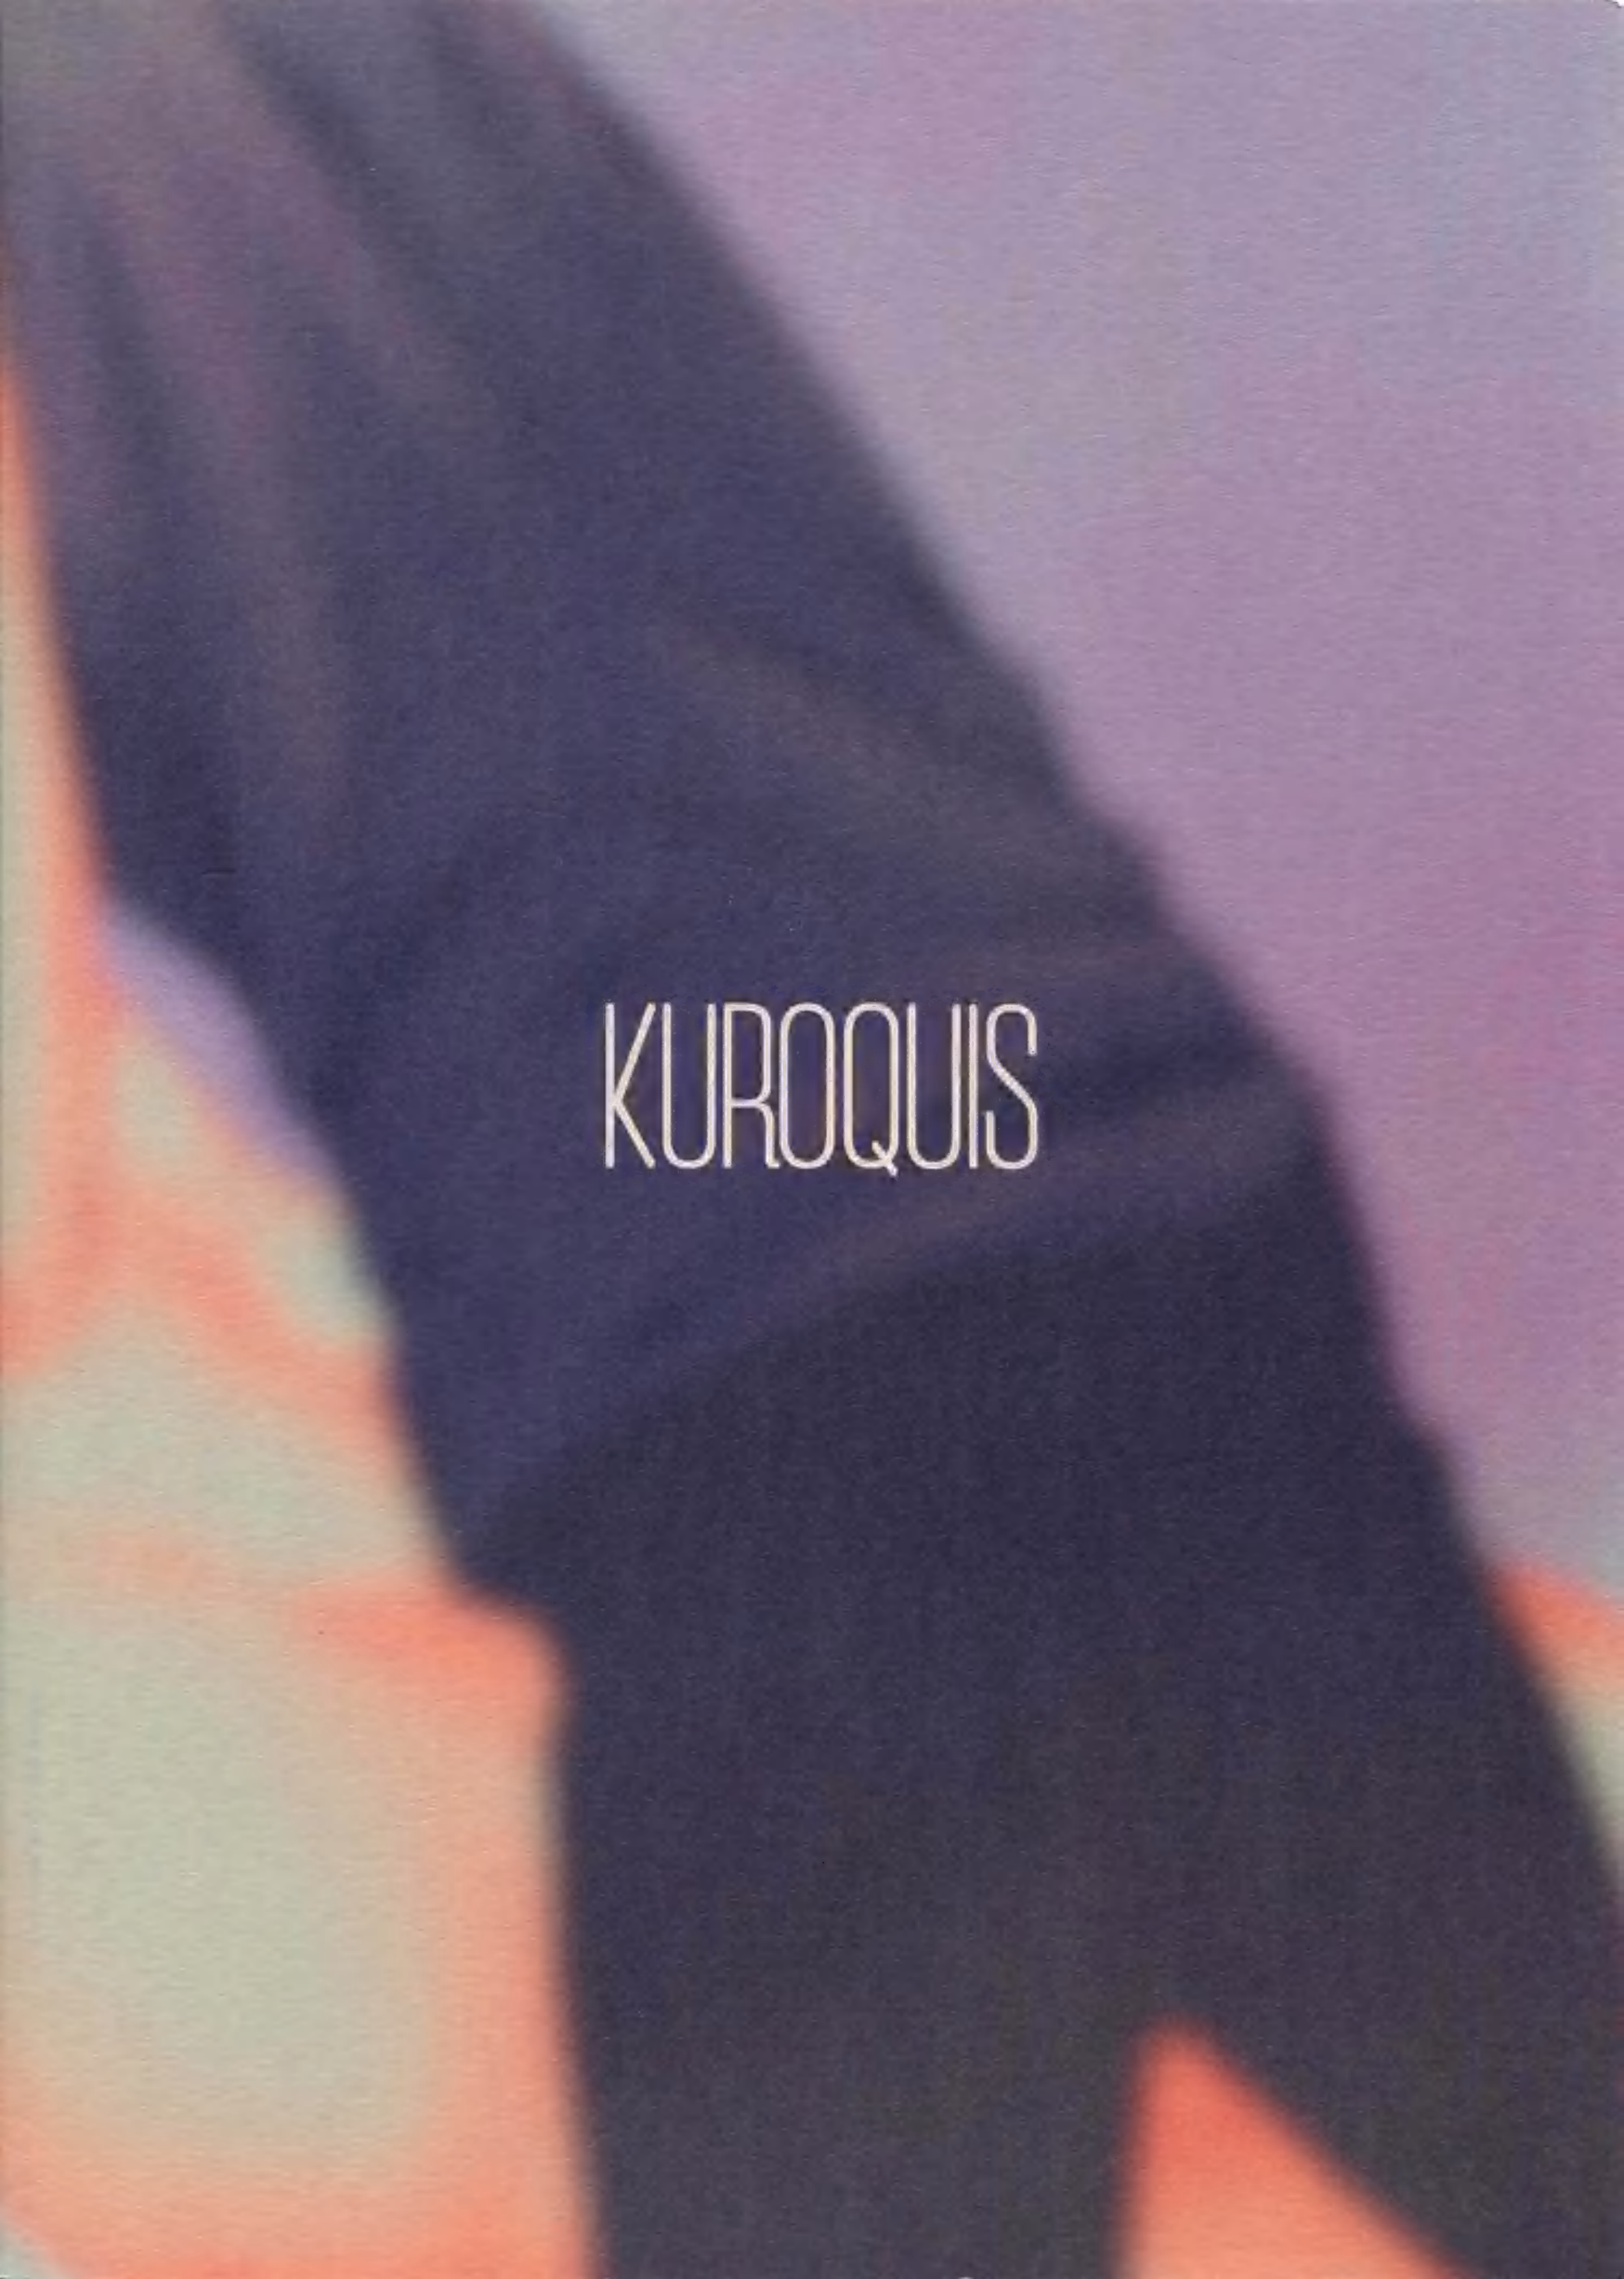

When I was stuck on about two frames or so in the blowjob scene, I asked a pal for advice, and they requested me to "make him lick the perineum." Aaah~~~ the perineum, huuuh~~~ so here it is. Thank you for this fresh and valuable input.

I'm going to relax during the summer but will come back again around fall or winter with more KuroTsuki. Please, check them out if you'd like. Thank you very much! KuroTsuki for the win!

The background is an abstract composition of large, overlapping, organic shapes. A large, dark navy blue shape dominates the center and left side. To its right, a lighter purple shape is visible. In the bottom left and bottom right corners, there are shapes in shades of orange and light green. The overall effect is a modern, artistic, and somewhat moody aesthetic.
